

Where to eat when shopping Oakbrook, IL: Labriola Bakery Cafe

TWEET THIS

December 9, 4:53 PM • Chicago Cheap Eats Examiner • Jacky Runice

Comment

Print

Email

RSS

Subscribe

Previous

The scent of baguettes, hot from the oven, fill Labriola Bakery Cafe in Oakbrook.

Labriola Bakery Cafe

Take a break from shopping at Oakbrook Shopping Center and lunch on a warm bread bowl of soup or house made pasta at Labriola Bakery Café, just down the street from the mall.

Stop by before hitting the stores or after you've made it past the hordes of shoppers. Open for lunch and dinner, Labriola serves an array of gourmet salads, hot and cold sandwiches, Neapolitan pizzas and house-made pastas. Take a look below at what's in store for you.

Don't confuse Labriola for one of those chain bakery places that serves sandwiches and salads. Owner Rich Labriola is a premier artisan baker. If the bread doesn't bring you to your knees, the house-made gelato might.

Since Oakbrook Shopping Center is an outdoor mall, it will feel extra nice to sip a latte next to Labriola's warm and cozy fireplace or relax with a glass of wine and crispy Margherita pizza straight from the wood-burning oven. Check out the web site for a complete menu.

Labriola Bakery Café

3021 Butterfield Rd.
Oak Brook, IL 60523
(630) 574-2008

Labriola Bakery Cafe

View Slideshow »